

Mrs. John Lee Brinkley

1977

Miss Lisa Kay Peach Becomes Bride of Mr. Brinkley July 10

St. Paul's Church in Columbia was the scene for the wedding of Miss Lisa Kay Peach and Mr. John Lee Brinkley, Jr. in the double-ring ceremony. Rev. Joseph E. Guertin officiated. The bride's mother, Mrs. John Lee Brinkley, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Brenda Jones, sister of the groom, Betsy Brinkley, sister of the groom, and Lynn Hicks of Columbia; Lydia Hook of West Columbia and Annie Marie Haskins of Winnsboro. They wore jade green dresses of grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Stedman Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brinkley, also of Columbia.

A program of traditional nuptial music was presented by Marlene Holstrom, organist, and Harold Ray Brooks, soloist, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The groom's best man was his father, and the usher-groomsmen were Mike Peach of Columbia, brother of the bride; Alan Shoultz, Danny Quesinberry, Chuck Smith, Edward Jones, Gary Shulman of Columbia; Cy Rush of Bennettsville and Jim Hicks of Columbia.

Pam Hawkins of Columbia was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Brenda Jones, sister of the groom, Betsy Brinkley, sister of the groom, and Lynn Hicks of Columbia; Lydia Hook of West Columbia and Annie Marie Haskins of Winnsboro. They wore jade green dresses of steeves had the same lace. She wore a cathedral length veil of imported French illusion, edged in the peau-d'ange lace and attached to a Camelot cap. She carried a nosegay of Jack Frost roses, baby's breath and snowdrift accented with English Ivy.

Miss Susan Ray Renwick and Joseph Verne Odum were united in marriage on Saturday evening, June ninth, at seven o'clock, in Bethel Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. The Reverend Doctor Robert E. Smith officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. John Calvin Renwick of Winnsboro. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Odum of Aiken. 1977 duPont deNemours and Company at the Savannah River Plant.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., the couple will make their home on Reynolds Pond Road, Aiken.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church social hall. Assisting with serving the wedding cake and groom's cake were Gail Ashford and Linda Ashford, and Lynda Litton and Mary Leitner poured punch.

During the evening, the couple left for a trip to Williamsburg, Va., and Washington, D.C. They will reside at 24 N. Montgomery St., Apt. 104, Memphis, Tennessee.

Mrs. Brinkley was graduated from Winnsboro High School in 1973, and received a B.S. degree in secondary education-social studies from the University of South Carolina in 1976.

Mr. Brinkley, a 1973 graduate of Dreher High School, attended the University of South Carolina and is currently attending Southern College of Optometry in Memphis, where he is on the Dean's List.

FRANKLIN—PEARSON. Greenville Piedmont. 7/1936
A wedding of interest to a wide circle of friends in North and South Carolina was that of Miss Ann Franklin to W. B. Pearson, Jr., of Charlotte, N. C. The ceremony was performed in Charlotte at St. Peter's rectory by Father Morrison. Only a few close friends were present.

The bride wore a tailored ensemble of blue chiffon, with accessories of blue. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of white roses.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a honeymoon in the mountains of western North Carolina after which they will return to Charlotte where they will make their home.

Mrs. Pearson received her A. B. degree from Lander college where she was a member of the Kappa Rho Beta sorority. Since her graduation she has taught in the Sharon and Greenwood city schools. Mr. Pearson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pearson of Strother. He is a graduate of Clemson college in architecture and is now a prominent young architect of Charlotte.

LaBello-Peake

Marie Elizabeth LaBello, daughter of Mrs. Rose Pace, was given in marriage by her uncle, James Mancuso, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, to Carl Richard Peake, son of Mrs. Mattie Peake of Winnsboro, South Carolina. The double ring ceremony took place August 25, 1948, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon at St. Mary's chapel, which was decorated with white gladioli.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Joseph E. Guertin before a candlelit altar.

While the guests assembled, traditional wedding marches were played. During the ceremony, Sadie Kelly accompanied Mrs. Joseph Kenz and Mrs.

George Daigle when they sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother."

The bride's dress was of white jersey and she wore a white hat. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaid was Mrs. Clifford Jorgenson, who wore a pink dress and carried pink roses.

Best man was Jack Atkinson of the Naval Air Station at Glenview, Illinois.

In the evening a wedding supper and reception were held at the Christopher Columbus Hall.

The couple spent their honeymoon near Lake Michigan. After their return they motored to Glenview, Illinois, where they are both assigned to the Naval Air Station.

PEAY—McMILLAN 8/25/1938

The little Presbyterian church in Longtown dressed with chaste simplicity and candle lighted, was the scene of a lovely wedding on Wednesday evening when Mary Tallulah, daughter of Mr. Robert Lamar Peay and Mrs. Peay became the bride of Mr. Francis Emmet McMillan. The Rev. B. H. Franklin, officiating, Mrs. George Moore presiding at the organ.

To the ever lovely music of Lohengrin's wedding march the bride attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Peay entered and was met by the groom, and his best man, Lamar Peay, brother of the bride at the altar.

The bride wore a becoming ensemble of blue with matching accessories and a lovely corsage. The maid of honor wore aqua marine chiffon, carried a bouquet of roses.

Immediately after the wedding the young couple left for a honeymoon trip, returning to the home of the bride's parents for a short stay.

The bride, a young woman of attractive personality and widely connected in South Carolina, has graduated from Ridgeway high school, class of '35. The groom, a native of Michigan, moving to Florida is engaged in a successful trucking business. They will make their home in Palm Beach.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Peay of Memphis, Tenn., Mrs. T. M. Jordan of Columbia and others from Camden, Chester, Ridgeway and Rion.

Plyler-Gay

Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Harrison Plyler of Winnsboro announce the engagement of their daughter, Sara Mae, to Mr. Lewis H. Gay of Winnsboro, son of Mr. D. J. Gay of Statesburg, Ga., and the late Mrs. Gay.

The wedding will take place on December 21, 1950.

Beam-Peak

Miss Thelma Beam and Duncan M. Peak were married at the parsonage of the Ridgeway Baptist church, Tuesday, August 6, at 7:30 in the evening.

The living room, where the ceremony was performed, was decorated with charming simplicity, using lighted tapers, fern and white gladioli. An improvised altar was formed before the mantel. The candles were lighted by Aram Davis, son-in-law of the bridegroom. Miss Elmo Hinnant, organist, gave the wedding music.

The bride and bridegroom entered together and were met at the altar by their pastor, the Rev. Leslie Edwards, who performed the ring ceremony in the presence of an assemblage of relatives and friends.

The bride wore a dress of navy blue alpaca crepe with navy and white accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of pink sweetheart roses and baby breath. She carried her mother's white silk wedding handkerchief.

Mrs. Peak is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Beam of Ridgeway. She is an honor graduate of Limestone college, and a member of Beta Mu Kappa and Beta Pi Theta sororities, serving as president of the latter.

Mr. Peak is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Peak of Winnsboro. He is head mechanic at the soil conservation camp at Winnsboro.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Peak left for their wedding trip and upon their return August 14, will occupy their home in Ridgeway.