

Drennon-Raines
1959
Characterized by charm and simplicity, the wedding of Miss Martha Drennon, of Great Falls, and Mr. Thomas Cason Raines, of Mitford, was solemnized at five o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Drennon, on Duke Power Company Hill. The Rev. Mr. Pettus, Methodist minister of Great Falls, officiated in the presence of the two families and intimate friends, before an improvised altar of pine, smilax and ferns. The candles were lighted by David Raines, brother of the bridegroom, and Dr. D. R. Stack, of Charleston.

A pre-nuptial musical program was rendered by Mrs. James Ferguson. "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" was sung by C. E. Gatlin of Great Falls, and "Oh Perfect Love" was played softly during the ceremony by Mrs. Ferguson, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride and bridegroom entered alone, and the ring service was used.

An informal reception was held, after the ceremony, and Misses Adelaine and Mary Raines, sisters of the bridegroom, and Misses Mary and Sarah Ferguson served wedding cake, Russian tea and mints.

The bride was attired in a costume of soldier blue with which she wore black accessories, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, the couple will be at home with the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Mamie Raines, in the Mitford section of Fairfield county.

Raines-Lybrand 1/19/43

Mrs. William Thomason Raines of Great Falls announces the marriage of her daughter, Mary, to Lieut. (j. g.) Dorsey K. Lybrand, U. S. N. R., of Aiken, S. C., on January 19, 1943, at San Diego, California.

Miss Angela Victoria Raley became the bride of Sydney Joseph Fogle on Friday, February 6, at half after seven in the First Baptist Church. The Reverend William Bouknight, Columbia, pastor of the groom, officiated at the double ring ceremony. 2/6/1970

HAYGOOD - RAMSEY

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Haygood of Blythewood announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Ann, and John W. "Jack" Ramsey, Jr., son of Mrs. Martha Phillips Ramsey and the late John W. Ramsey of Winnsboro. 1967

Rhame-Reaves

Miss Susanne Lyles Reaves of Monmouth Beach, N. J. and Joseph Burnes Rhames, Jr. of Greensboro, N. C. were married on Saturday, June 2, in the St. John's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Cannon Charles H. Best, assisted by the Rev. Edward B. Guerry. 1973

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamlin Reaves of Monmouth Beach. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. George Hamlin Reaves of Columbia and the late Mr. Reaves, and Mr. and Mrs. James Morris Lyles of Winnsboro. A graduate of St. Mary's Junior College, Raleigh, N. C., and Mary Baldwin College, Staunton, Va., she is employed by Brownhills, Greensboro.

will reside at Greenbriar Apartments, Burlington, N. C.

Mrs. Mark Erskine Mills

Mills-Ramsey nuptials held August 23 1980

On August 23, at eight o'clock in the evening, Salem Presbyterian Church was the setting for the lovely wedding of Jeanna Faye Ramsey and Mark Erskine Mills.

The Rev. Roger A. Gallion of Columbia officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

A program of traditional wedding music was provided by Mrs. William B. Hendrix, organist, and she and Miss Catherine Hendrix played two organ-piano duets, "Ave Marie" by Bach and an "Allegro from the Water Music Suite" by Handel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight gown of organza with an empire waistline, pearled Venice lace on the bodice, a high neckline and long full bishop sleeves. The dress had an attached chapel train which ended with a deep flounce. She carried a silk bouquet of white roses, baby's breath, and ivy.

Mrs. Alice R. Coleman, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and the attendants were Mrs. Gaye R. Hampton, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Jeanne S. Ramsey, sister-in-law of the bride. Miss Susanne Marie Ramsey, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

The attendants wore silesta gowns of ivory with pink dogwood print, scooped necklines, split sleeves, blouson bodices, and full circular skirts. They carried bouquets of pink baby carnations and baby's breath, and the flower girl carried a basket of pink rose petals.

Michael R. Mills served as his brother's bestman. The groomsmen were Charles H. Coleman III, and William K. Coleman, cousins of the bridegroom; and J. Charles Ramsey, brother of the bride. Mr. Joseph Charles Ramsey, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship building.

Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Burley. The register was kept by Mrs. James M. Martin, aunt of the bride. Serving the wedding cake was Mrs. Marie S. Burley. Assisting with serving were Misses Marcia Blackburn, Genia Green, Frances Anne Hendrix, Martha Mann, Lesley Green, and Mrs. T. L. McMeekin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Ramsey and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Burley, Jr., of Monticello. She was graduated from Winnsboro High School, and is presently a senior at Winthrop College, majoring in Business Education.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ann C. Mills of Blair and the late Ralph E. Mills. He is a graduate of Richard Winn Academy and received a B. S. degree in forest management from Clemson University. He is self employed with Glenn Associates Land Surveying Company in Jenkinsville.

During the evening, the couple left for a wedding trip to Kiawah Island. They are now residing in Blair.

Jacobsen-Ramsing

Mrs. John Edward Jacobsen

The Lutheran Church of the Redeemer of Newberry, South Carolina was the setting for the noon wedding and Captain John Edward Jacobsen, on Saturday, June 27, 1981. The wedding reception was given in the Social Hall of the church.

The Reverend Fred Jacobson, father of the groom, assisted by the Reverend Henry A. McCullough, Jr., officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ramsing of Blair, South Carolina, is a graduate of the University of South Carolina and attended the Graduate School there. She is enrolled in the New Mexico State University Graduate School, Las Cruces, New Mexico.

The groom, John Edward Jacobsen, is the son of the Reverend and Mrs. Fred Jacobsen of Alden, Minnesota. He graduated from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minnesota and Pilot Training in Columbus, Mississippi. He is presently serving as a captain in the U.S. Air Force, assigned to the 436th Tactical Fighter Training Squadron at Hollo-man Air Force Base, Alamogordo, New Mexico as an instructor pilot.

After a wedding trip to the Carolina coast, the Jacobsens will be at home in Alamogordo, New Mexico.

RANEY—SCHEPER

1956
Beaufort, S. C.—A marriage of much interest to their many friends in South Carolina was that of Miss Margaret Raney, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Raney, and William F. Scheper, which took place at St. Helena's Episcopal church Saturday, September 11, the Rev. Maynard Marshall performed the ceremony.

A musical program was given by Miss Caroline Paul, violinist; Mrs. George Waterhouse, organist, and Dick Paul, soloist.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with Southern smilax and white periwinkle. A reception was given at the Bellamy Inn after the ceremony, where the bridal party was entertained, after which the bride changed her bridal costume of heavy white satin with an over dress of rare point lace, embroidered in pearls. Her tulle veil was arranged in cap fashion caught at the side with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and valley lillies. Her traveling suit was of dark crepe trimmed with tan leather with accessories to match. The happy couple left for a motor trip through the Northern states. They will make their home in Beauford, where Mr. Scheper is assistant cashier in the People's bank.