

Miss Dutrow Is Wed to Mr. Sanders Dec. 19 in Columbia Church Ceremony

Miss Zoe Caroline Dutrow became the bride of Alexander Mullings Sanders, Jr., on Saturday afternoon, December 19, at 4:00 o'clock in a double ring ceremony at Ebenezer Lutheran Church, Columbia. 1964

The Rev. Robert L. Hock, pastor, officiated, assisted by The Rt. Rev. Albert S. Thomas, retired Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of South Carolina. Acolytes were James Kempson and James Haltiwanger. Wedding music was furnished by Gordon Beaver, organist, with Miss Del Dutrow, sister of the bride, mezzo soprano, and David Sennema, tenor. On the altar were white roses and gladioli.

Mrs. Sanders is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Dutrow, Jr., of Columbia, and Mr. Sanders is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mullings Sanders of Columbia. The latter was before her marriage, Miss Henrietta Thomas of Ridgeway, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Charlton Thomas.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a princess-style wedding gown of off-white silk peau de soie. The portrait neckline was appliqued with re-embroidered Alencon lace finished in tiny seed pearls, while her three-quarter length sleeves were caught up with lace. The modified bell-shaped skirt was accented by a cascade of Alencon lace in the front and by appliqued obi sashes at the peak of the flowing chapel train. Her fingertip veil was of Brussels lace. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and lily of the valley.

Miss Del Dutrow, maid of honor, wore a street-length gold brocade dress with fitted bodice, long sleeves, and demi-dome skirt, a Chanel bow with circular veil, and gold shoes. She carried a bouquet of white Fuji mums.

The bridesmaids were Miss Henrietta Thomas Sanders, sister of the groom; Mrs. Leroy T.

Phaup, cousin of the bride, both of Columbia; Miss Dorothy Wyatt Hardeman, Ware Shoals; Miss Sara Elyce Powell, Collins, Georgia; Miss Cynthia Elizabeth Scoville, Orangeburg; and Mrs. C. Marshall Cain, Aiken.

They wore dresses identical to that of the honor attendant and carried similar bouquets.

The father of the bridegroom served as best man. Groomsmen were Dr. Julian C. Adams, James Alexander Vaughn, Jr., William S. Nelson, David G. Ellison, III, Dr. Cantey Haile, Jr., all of Columbia; and John Earle Jones, cousin of the groom, Lexington, Kentucky.

Serving as ushers were A. McConnell Faucette, Jr., Dr. Warren F. Holland, Jr., James A. Hutto, Jr., James H. Fowles, Jr., Lawrence S. Barringer, Jr., and Charles E. Stork, uncle of the bride.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at the Woman's Club in Maxcy Gregg Park. Mr. and Mrs. William Spence Stork of Augusta, Georgia, aunt and uncle of the bride, greeted guests at the door. Mrs. N. P. Mitchell presided at the guest register. Mrs. Otto Weis introduced guests to the receiving line. Dr. Raymond O. Thigpen played organ music during the reception.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Sanders will be at home at 406 Springlake Road, Columbia.

Mr. Sanders is the nephew of Mrs. J. Ben White, Winnsboro, and Mr. Robert W. Thomas, Ridgeway. His mother taught at Mount Zion Institute before her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Sr., gave the rehearsal party Friday evening at their home at 152 Saluda Avenue, Columbia.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Jr., are graduates of the University of South Carolina. Mr. Sanders also took his LL.B. degree at the South Carolina Law School, and is a practicing attorney in Columbia.

MISS FRANCES REBECCA SANDERS

Baptist Church in Winnsboro.

Miss Rutland and Mr. Hollis Wed in Beautiful Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Maedee Yvonne Rutland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Rutland, and Mr. Thomas Woodward Hollis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hollis, all of Winnsboro, S. C., took place at 8:30 P.M., August 5, in Gordon Memorial Methodist church. The Rev. A. M. Martin, pastor of the groom, officiated, using the double ring ceremony, in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

Miss Adelaide Brooks, pianist, and Miss Audrey Peak, vocalist, furnished the wedding music.

T. W. Hollis, father of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were John T. Rutland, brother of the bride, Doyle Bootle, brother of the groom, James Haywood Mattox and Billy Crawford.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS W. HOLLIS

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of duchess satin designed with a sweetheart neck, bodice ending with a peplum of chantilly lace over a full satin skirt and train. The long sleeves ended in points over the hands. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion fell from a tiara of pleated net and beaded apple blossoms and was trimmed with an edging of chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white purple-throated orchid tied with white satin ribbon. Her only ornament was a single strand of baby pearls, gift of the groom.

Mrs. Louis A. Walker, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of aqua satin and marquisette, with matching mitts and a sweetheart hat trimmed with lace and miniature flowers. She carried a bouquet of mixed asters tied with rose satin ribbon. She wore a rhinestone necklace, a gift of the bride.

Miss Mary Hollis, sister of the groom, wore a rose gown, styled same as the matron of honor, with matching hat and mitts. She also carried a bouquet of mixed asters, tied with aqua satin ribbon. She wore a rhinestone necklace, a gift of the bride.

Mother of the bride wore a gown of black with lavender orchid corsage.

BASS-SANDERS

Mrs. Thelma F. Bass and Henry E. Sanders were married quietly at the home of the Judge of Probate, Horace Traylor, on Monday evening, May 11 at 7:30 o'clock.

Only members of the immediate families were present for the ceremony. They were, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sanders, Joe Sanders and Misses Jean and Kay Bass.

The bridegroom's mother wore a mint green gown and a lavender orchid corsage.

Mrs. Nettie Rutland, paternal grandmother of the bride, wore a rose lace gown and a white role gladioli corsage.

The reception was given by the bride's parents at the Methodist parsonage.

Later in the evening, the couple left for a wedding trip to Fontana Village, N. C. For traveling the bride wore a dress of white organdy over yellow satin with white accessories, and the white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis were graduated from Mt. Zion Institute. Mr. Hollis is now employed by the A&P Tea Company and Mrs. Hollis is assistant to R. R. McMeekin, D.D.S.

Rutland-Lewis

Mr. and Mrs. John Rutland of Rion announce the marriage of their daughter, Vivian Creighton to Cpl. Young G. Lewis, Jr., at 8 P. M. March 25th at the Methodist parsonage in Winnsboro, in the presence of the immediate families. 1944

Rev. H. Lester Kingman, pastor of the bride officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a spring outfit of light blue with navy accessories. Her corsage was pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Lewis is a graduate of Greenbrier High School and attended Draughts Business College in Columbia. For the past 14 months she has been employed at the Charleston Navy Yard.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Y. G. Lewis, Sr., of Blackstock is a graduate of Clemson College, class of '43 and is now serving with armed forces.

The young couple will make their home in Macon, Ga., for the present.

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Lois Wood Rutland of Rion and Harry Gene Sandifer of Winnsboro. The ceremony took place on Thursday evening, September 7, at eight-fifteen o'clock at the Greenbrier Methodist church. This was also the wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. The Rev. George K. Way, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. 1950

Palms, ferns and arrangements of white gladioli, with white lighted candles in candelabra furnished a lovely setting for the ceremony.

Miss Adelaide Brooks, pianist, and Miss Julianne Sinclair, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Miss Brooks played "To a Wild Rose" (MacDowell), "Romance" (Rubenstein), "Traumerei" (Schumann), "Andante Cantabile" (Tchaikowski). For the processional "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, and for the recessional the "Wedding March" from Midsummer Night's Dream were used. Miss Sinclair sang "I Love Thee" (Grieg), "Because" (D'Hardelot) and "The Lord's Prayer" (Mallot).

Serving as ushers were Guy Rutland, Bobby Rutland, brothers of the bride, Johnny Darby and Paul Bazemore. The candles were lighted by Clyde Rutland and Johnny Darby.

Larry Stevenson was the bridegroom's best man.

Mrs. Y. G. Lewis of Chester, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and the maid of honor was Miss Jane Sandifer, sister of the bridegroom. They wore identical dresses of rose Damascus moire, featuring a fitted bodice, with a low corded sheered yoke and puffed sleeves, a corded sheered ruffle at the base of circular yoke made the skirt a replica of the Victorian age. They wore matching mitts and carried cascade bouquets of asters.

The bridesmaids were Barbara Douglas, Madge and Helen Lewis and Martha Ann Castles, all classmates of the bride. They wore dresses of debutante blue moire and mitts, fashioned like those of the honor attendants, and carried cascade bouquets of asters.

Patsy Rutland, sister of the bride, and Mayce Lou Crowder were flower girls. They wore rose and blue dresses made like those of the other attendants, and carried nosegays.

All senior attendants wore rhinestone necklaces and the flower girls wore sterling flower embossed barettes, gifts of the bride.

The lovely bride, who was given in marriage by her father, John Rutland, wore an exquisite dress of Duchess satin with fitted bodice scalloped to yoke of Chantilly lace. Satin covered buttons extended down the back from neck to waist, with long sleeves ending in calla lily points at the wrist. Three rows of scalloped tucks in the full skirt formed a bustle effect, and similar scallops formed the hem, extending around the short train, a creation of the bride's mother. Her fingertip veil fell softly from a beaded Juliet cap, and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid, showered with tuberoses and satin ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Rutland, mother of the bride, wore a rose crepe dress with an orchid corsage. Mrs. L. W. Sandifer, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in blue and wore an orchid corsage.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents at Rion. Receiving with the bridal party were the parents of the bride and bridegroom.

During the evening the young couple left for a trip to the mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee, and upon their return will make their home in Winnsboro. For traveling the bride wore a dress of navy brocaded taffeta with black accessories and the orchid lifted from her Bible. is now manager of the Dixie Home Stores in Winnsboro.