A pr presented by Mrs. Calvin Koonts, organist, of Due West, and Dr. Joseph Beard, violinist, of Anderson.

The bride was escorted to the altar by Bert Franklin Garrison, Jr., who, along with her mother, gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a formal wedding gown of ivory embroidered silk organza and lace. Her full length veil of silk bridal illusion fell from a headpiece of yellow roses on the back of her head. She carried five long-stemmed yellow roses. As she descended the aisle, she presented a rose to her mother and as she and the bridegroom ascended the aisle, she presented a rose to the bridegroom's mother.

Miss Deborah Ann Swygert was her sister's maid of honor. Mrs. Angus

Mrs. William Mack Smith

Poole of Greenwood, and John Knox Strickland of Due West.

Mrs. Garrison chose for her daughter's wedding a long sleeved formal gown of soft green silk. Her corsage was of white cymbidium orchids.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a light beige polyester long sleeved formal gown with a metallic embroidered bodice. Her corsage was of white cymbidium orchids.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall. During the evening the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip and are now at home in the Oakland Apartments, Abbeville.

Smith-Hilverink Vows Exchanged

Miss Janice Kay Hilverink and James Scott Smith were united in marriage on February 14, at First Baptist Church of North Augusta. Dr. Charles Page officiated at the service, assisted by the Rev. Andy Menger. 1991

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Flossie Hilverink of Rex, Ga., and the late J. W. Hilverink. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marion Smith of North Augusta. He is the grandson of Mrs. E.J. Miner of Winnsboro and the late Mr. Miner.

Given in marriage by her mother, the bride chose an organza gown with lace bodice forming a Queen Anne neckline, fitted sleeves and a ruffle of lace encircling the skirt which fell to a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was caught to a lace Camelot headpiece and she carried a nosegay sweetheart roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Rita Ponder was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gail Cone, Mrs. Linda Hayes, Mrs. Joan Winter, sister of the bride; Miss Jackie Creasy and Miss Beth Singletary.

Little Miss Carie Hayes served as ring bearer and little Miss Katie Winter was flower girl; both are nieces of the bride.

The bridegroom's father was best man, and brothers of the groom, Keith Smith and Brooks Smith, were ushers, as were a cousin, Johnny Miner; Don White and Richard Smith.

At the reception afterward, the register was kept by Misses Carley and Cherie Cone, nieces of the bride, and the cake was cut by Miss Andrea McDonald, and Miss Maria Miner served.

The couple are living in North Augusta. Mrs. Smith is employed at Gracewood State School and Hospital. She has a masters degree in special education from Georgia Southern. Mr. Smith, a graduate of Clemson University with a degree in plant science, teaches horticulture at Aiken High School.
