

Miss Elizabeth Ann Stewart Is Wed To Mr. Monroe on Sunday, June 18 1933

MRS. JAMES CHARLES MONROE

Miss Elizabeth Ann Stewart and James Charles Monroe, Jr., were united in marriage at the First United Methodist Church, on Sunday, June 18, at three-thirty o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Calvin Stewart of Winnsboro, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. James C. Monroe of Greenville and the late Mr. Monroe.

The Reverend E. Don McKinney officiated at the double ring ceremony with the Reverend Harry R. Mays of Greenville assisting.

Mrs. W. T. Sprott, organist, used "Westminster Abbey" (Purcell) as the Processional and "Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee" (Beethoven) as the Recessional. Mrs. John V. Nicholson, Jr., soloist, sang "O Perfect Love" (Barnby) and "The Lord's Prayer" Malotte).

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long sleeved floor-length bridal gown of white silk organza accented with a lace bib and chapel train. The silk illusion veil fell from a very uniquely designed Camelot headpiece of silk organza which was trimmed in lace and beaded with white velvet ribbon. She carried a bouquet of daisies and baby's breath.

Mrs. Madison Peyton Howell, Jr., of Mount Pleasant, sister of the bride, and Mrs. John Calvin Stewart, Jr., of Mountain Home, Idaho, were honor attendants. They wore floor-length dresses of floral print in lovely shades of blue, aqua and red. The empress waistline was accented with a blue satin band with a tailored bow at the waistline. The deep V neckline was outlined in a ruffle of the same material and the long bouffant sleeves ended in a frilled cuff. They carried bouquets of daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Sumter Francis DeBruk of Mount Pleasant, Miss Margaret Yongue Floyd of New York City, Mrs. William Broadus Monroe of Greenville, Miss Susan Louise Phillips of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Mrs. John Terry Poole of Barnwell, and Miss Katharine Ann Williams of Tuscaloosa, Alabama. They wore dresses identical to those of the honor attendants.

Miss Mary Stewart Howell, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a floor-length dress of white cotton batiste with a floral sash and carried a white straw basket trimmed in daisies.

William Broadus Monroe of Greenville was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Captain John Calvin Stewart, Jr., of Mountain Home, Idaho, and Charles Douglas Stewart, brothers of the bride, William Dant Goepper of Greenville, English Rutherford Josey, II, of Batesburg, James Bartlett Key of Charleston, and Langdon Sumter Ligon, III, of Norfolk, Virginia.

Mrs. Stewart, mother of the bride, wore a street-length dress of aqua linen. Mrs. Monroe, the bridegroom's mother, wore a dress of aqua linen. The ceremony was employed by Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, N. R., in Winston-Salem, N. C.

Miss Barbara Joette Spires Becomes Bride of Mr. J. W. Stewart April 20 1962

MR. AND MRS. JACK WARREN STEWART

Gordon Memorial Methodist Church was the scene of a lovely wedding at 7:30 p.m., on April 20th when Miss Barbara Joette Spires, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlo Hennigan Spires, became the bride of Jack Warren Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Britt O. Stewart of Rantoul, Illinois.

The Rev. R. M. Wofford, pastor of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The wedding music was presented by Mrs. William J. Turner, organist, and Miss Sylvia Wilson, soloist.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Walter Arnette, aunt of the bride, wore a street length dress of orchid organza over taffeta designed with a full skirt. The fitted bodice featured a scooped neckline, tiny sleeves, and taffeta cummerbund tied at the back to form a bustle effect. She wore short white gloves, gift of the bride, and carried a single long-stemmed rose. Miss Judy Spires, maid of honor and sister of the bride, wore a yellow dress identical to that of the matron of honor, and short white gloves, gift of the bride. She also carried a single long-stemmed rose.

The bridesmaids were Misses Billie Spires, sister of the bride, Shirley Allen, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Heyward C. Cooper, cousin of the groom, and Miss Peggy Gladden, all of Winnsboro. They wore dresses in pastel shades of green, yellow, blue, and pink, identical to those of the honor attendants. They also wore short white gloves, gift of the bride, and carried a single long-stemmed rose.

Mr. Britt O. Stewart, father of the bridegroom, was the best man. Usher-groomsmen were Britton and Samuel Stewart, brothers of the groom, Cody Spires, uncle of the bride, Heyward C. Cooper, and William L. Powers. The candles were lighted by Harlo Spires, Jr., brother of the bride, and Charles Freeman, Jr.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle. It featured an illusion yoke outlined in motifs of lace, sequins, and iridescent beads, long sleeves ending in scalloped lily points, fitted bodice of lace, bouffant skirt of tulle over satin with ring designs of lace, ending in a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a crown of tulle and lace. She carried a white prayer book topped with white roses and satin ribbon.

The ceremony took place at the Newberry Highway.
