

Miss Sarah Still, James Brice, Jr.
Married in Church Ceremony Feb. 28
1959

MRS. JAMES BOYCE BRICE, JR.

Miss Louise Strange Becomes Bride
Of Mr. Cogdill in Church Ceremony

MRS. BOBBY RAY COGDILL

Haven C. Cogdill, as best man and the ushers were Billy Cogdill, brother of the bridegroom, Jimmy Hudson, Skipper Sims, Jerry Collins, all of Winnsboro, and Kenneth Gasque and George Rast, both of Columbia.

Mrs. Strange, mother of the bride,

Mr. Cogdill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Haven C. Cogdill of Winnsboro, is a graduate of Mount Zion Institute in Winnsboro, and Palmer College Columbia. He is currently employed with the Lawrence Furniture Company in Columbia.

The couple will reside at 813 Northwood Street, in Columbia.

Lowell-Stone Engagement Is Told

1973

MISS LONETIA NEAL LOWELL

Miss Cathy Allston Strange Is Wed
To Mr. Shealy, Saturday, July 14

1973

MS. TORRENCE WOLFE SHEALY

Stallings-Strange
Wedding 1942

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Strange, Jr., who were married Tuesday, March 31, at Ebenezer Lutheran church, in Columbia with Dr. C. E. Fritz, pastor, officiating, are making their home at the Wellington apartments in Spartanburg.

The bride, the former Miss Pheatus Doris Stallings, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wellington Luther of Columbia. Mr. Strange is the son of Mrs. Louise Strange of Winnsboro and the late C. E. Strange.

The ceremony took place at 5 p. m. on March 31, with spring flowers decorating the church and furnishing a background for the wedding.

Mrs. Strange was graduated from the University of South Carolina and later studied at Furman University. Since completing her college work she has been teaching in schools of West Columbia.

Mr. Strange took both his academic and law degrees at the University of South Carolina and for the past three years has been practicing law in Spartanburg. He is state president of the Young Democrats club, treasurer of the Congress for Democracy and national committeeman for United Youth for Defense.

Sherer-
Stokes

Mr. and Mrs. D.S. Stokes announce the marriage of their daughter, Deborah Elease, to Mr. George D. Sherer on January 19, 1975.

Mrs. Sherer is a graduate of Winnsboro High School and has attended Winthrop College and the University of South Carolina. She is presently employed in the Personnel Department of South Carolina Electric and Gas Company in Columbia.

Mr. Sherer, the son of Mrs. Pearl Sherer and the late Paul D. Shere, is a graduate of Eau Claire High School and attended the University of South Carolina. He is presently Programming Supervisor in the Computer Services Department of South Carolina Electric and Gas Company.

Along with their three children by Mr. Sherer's former marriage, the couple will reside at 235 Eddine Drive in West Columbia.

Stewart-Kaiser 184

A lovely and interesting wedding of the late summer was that of Miss Don Oza Marie Stewart of Ridgeway and Columbia and Horace Martel Kaiser of Lexington and Columbia, which took place at 6:30 Friday evening in the Baptist church at Ridgeway. The Rev. Palmer Pierce of the Lutheran Church of the Incarnation, Columbia, pastor of the bridegroom, and the Rev. Leslie Edwards of the Ridgeway Baptist church, pastor of the bride, officiated in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends. The Lutheran single ring ceremony was used.

and Sims Gray, J. C. Dowling, Dick Murphy, David Crowson and Billy Parker, all of Columbia.

Mrs. Paul Robert Hayes of Augusta, Ga., Miss Sara Harley of Ridgeway and Misses Georgia Miller, Betty Clark, Jenny Floyd and Eleanor Bradford, all of Columbia, were the bridesmaids. They wore aqua silk net dresses over taffeta, having short puffed sleeves, dropped shoulders and bouffant skirts.

The maid of honor, Miss Jewell Stewart of Ridgeway, sister of the bride, wore dusty-pink silk net over taffeta, made along the same lines as the bridesmaids' dresses with a very slight train.

The bridesmaids and maid of honor also wore shoulder-length veils to match their dresses, caught to their hair with rosebuds, and they carried old fashioned bouquets, each centered with a burning taper.

Jane and Marian Edmunds of Ridgeway were the flower girls. They wore old fashioned yellow dresses and carried yellow garden hats filled with rose petals.

tractively decorated in white and green, with gladioli, snapdragons and ferns. Silver wedding bells hung from the chandeliers, and the candles used about the rooms were showered with white wedding bells on white satin ribbon streamers. The beautifully embossed triple-tiered wedding cake centered the table in the dining room.

Punch, ice cream and cake were served.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip to Florida and when they return will make their home at 1514 Marion street, Columbia. For traveling the bride wore a cocoa-brown suit with white accessories.

Mrs. Kaiser, a lovely and charming girl, is the daughter of Mrs. Riley Stewart and the late Mr. Stewart of Ridgeway. She was educated in the Ridgeway schools, at Lander college and Draughton's Business college. At Lander, she was a member of Pi Sigma Phi sorority. For the past several years, the bride has been making her home in Columbia, where she is secretary in the Boy Scouts of America offices. Mrs. Kaiser belongs to the Debonair and Dutch Damsel clubs of this city.

Mr. Kaiser is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Kaiser of Lexington. He attended the Lexington schools and was graduated from the University of South Carolina school of pharmacy last June. The bridegroom is now with McGregor's Drug store in Columbia. He belongs to the Debonair club of Columbia.

Stewart-Coffield

Mr. and Mrs. William Eugene Stewart announce the marriage of their daughter, Talitha Ann, to Orus Reid Coffield, Jr., Friday afternoon, April 5. The ceremony was performed in Blacksburg by the Rev. L. A. Carter, former pastor of the bride, in the presence of a group of friends from Ellenboro, N. C.

The bride is a graduate of Winthrop college, and for the past several months has been employed as secretary to the president of Queen Anne mills, Ellenboro, N. C.

The groom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Coffield of Ellenboro, N. C. He received his education in the Ellenboro schools and Hemphill's school, Memphis, Tenn. For the past two years he has been an employee of the Union Savings and Trust company of Forest City, N. C.