

Mr. and Mrs. William Maxwell Stringfellow, Jr., of Chester, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann, to Peter Eli Cardiff of Chicago, Ill.

The groom-elect is the son of Dr. John Cardiff of Chicago and Mrs. Philip Hester of Michigan.

An April wedding is planned by the couple. 1972
Ann is the granddaughter of Mrs. H. S. Carroll and the late Mr. Carroll of the Lebanon Community.

Miss Eleanor Johnson Stukes Is Wed To Lieut. Joseph de Veaux Carson

MRS. JOSEPH DE VEAUX CARSON is presently in Business with the United States Army.

Miss Swearingen and Mr. Smith Married in Chester On June 30th 1957

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Swearingen of Blackstock announce the marriage of their daughter, Erlene, to Mr. William Smith, Jr., of Winnsboro. Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, also of Winnsboro.

The marriage vows were exchanged on June 30 in Chester. Mrs. Hattie Y. Harden, Probate Judge, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are making their home in Winnsboro.

MISS DORIS TANNER AND G. L. REYNOLDS ARE WED

Miss Doris Leola Tanner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Tanner of Winnsboro, and Grady Lavern Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Reynolds of Lugoff, were married in a church ceremony on October 2. The bride is an honor graduate of Monticello high school.

The young couple are making their home in Columbia. 1959

Taylor-Monts

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Taylor, of Simpson announce the marriage of their daughter, Mildred Adele to George Charlie Monts of Simpson on Oct. 2, 1940. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. O. L. Dasher of West Columbia at the St. David's Lutheran parsonage.

LEAGUE—SURLS

Mr. and Mrs. James Britt League announce the marriage of their daughter Carol Gabrielle to Mr. Henry Floyd Surles, Jr., on Friday, the twenty-first of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, Greenville, South Carolina.

The above announcement will be read with interest in Winnsboro where Mrs. Surles has been a popular teacher for several years in the home economics departments at Mount Zion and Everett and friends will be glad to know that she will continue her connection with Mount Zion during the coming session.

Summers-Smith 1952

Mrs. Sarah Summers of Winnsboro and Sgt. Hugh Smith of Orlando, Fla., were quietly married on Dec. 21st at the Methodist parsonage at De Funiak Springs, Fla., by the Rev. Walton Ventess in the presence of a few intimate friends.

The couple will make their home in De Funiak Springs where Sgt. Smith is stationed with the army air corps at Elgin Field.

Amerson-Tanner

Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Amerson of Darlington, S. C., would like to announce the marriage of their daughter, Doris Ann Amerson, to Thomas J. Tanner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Tanner of Winnsboro, on April 2nd. Thomas, known as Jerry, is in the U. S. Navy, and Ann is residing with his parents on Golf Course Road in Winnsboro, until his return from the service. 1958

SURLS—BOND

Of interest to a wide circle of friends in the Carolinas, Kentucky, Ohio and elsewhere was the unusually beautiful and impressive wedding of Miss Lucille Elizabeth Surles of Winnsboro, and Mr. Zech Ford Bond Jr. of Cincinnati, Ohio, which was solemnized in the First Baptist church of Winnsboro, Tuesday evening, June 29th at 8 o'clock. 1937

The Rev. H. Floyd Surles father of the bride officiated, assisted by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. Zech Ford Bond, pastor of Hyde Park Baptist church, Cincinnati. The beautiful ring ceremony was used. Before the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. W. C. Steen of Winnsboro, pianist, with Mrs. James Furman Dobson of Ridgeway, soloist, and Mr. Bernard Joseph Jumper of Columbia violinist.

During the musical prelude the ushers lighted the candles and rolled down the white cloth for the floor aisles.

The ushers, who also acted as groom's men, entered first, two at the time, and took their places on the altar floor in the space reserved for the attendants. They were: James Calvin Rivers of Chesterfield, Darman Turner, of Winnsboro, Walter Wilkins of Greenville and H. Floyd Surles, Jr. of Winnsboro, brother of the bride. The bride's maids entered singly and stood with the groom's men. They were Mrs. L. L. Foster of Columbia, Miss Inez Driggers of Clio, a cousin of the bride, Miss Carroll League of Greenville and Miss Goodwin also of Greenville. All the bride's maids wore dresses alike of green starched lace with cowl necks, fastened with jeweled clips, full puffed sleeves and wide circular floor length skirts. They carried arm bouquets of deep pink rose buds and fern, tied with satin ribbon to match flowers. Their sandals were silver and all wore a cluster of rosebuds in their hair.

Mrs. Joseph A. Johnson of Wall-halla was matron of honor. Her dress fashioned like those of the bride's maids was of pink starched lace. She carried an arm bouquet of orchid tinted Shasta daisies and fern, tied with wide satin ribbon of a deeper orchid shade. She wore silver sandals and a cluster of orchid daisies in her hair. The Rev. Zech Ford Bond, D. D., father of the bridegroom entered and took his position in front of the altar. The bridegroom entered with his best man, Mr. William Waugh of Louisville, Ky. and awaited the arrival of the bride at the altar.

The bride entered on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage. She was very lovely in her wedding gown of gleaming white satin, made in the new redingote style, with full length redingote, with long train. The redingote fell open below the waistline, revealing in front the beautiful white satin evening gown over which it was worn. The redingote had a deep powder lace yoke and long sleeves full at the top and tapering tightly to the wrist and ending in point at the hand. The full length veil of silk net, bordered in rose point lace was attached to a Juliet cap of tulle and orange blossoms in very becoming style. She wore a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom and carried an exquisite bouquet of brides roses and valley lillies and fern showered with white satin ribbon, valley lillies and rosebuds.

The bride's mother, Mrs. H. Floyd Surles, wore a dress of peach chantilly lace and net and wore a corsage of talisman roses.

Mrs. Zech Ford Bond, the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of pink lace and net and a corsage of pink roses.

The Student Government Council, a member of the Sigma Tau Delta Sorority and held other positions of honor. For the past three years she has been a member of Everett School faculty.

On Saturday evening, April 20, Miss Pamela Jean Sykes and Larry Aulton Webb were united in marriage at the Augusta Road Baptist Church, Greenville. The double-ring ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock by the Reverend Marion H. Hare, pastor of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jerome Sykes of Greenville, formerly of Winnsboro. (Mrs. Sykes was Millie Jean Cooper.) The groom is the son of Mr. and Dewey K. Webb, also of Greenville. 1974

Following their wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina, the young couple will also reside in Greenville, where they are both employed at St. Francis Hospital. Mrs. Webb holds the position of ward secretary and her husband is a supervisor and respiratory therapist.

Webb Sykes

Mrs. Larry Aulton Webb

Tanner-Bass 1947

A wedding of simplicity and loveliness took place on Saturday night, June 28, at 9 o'clock at the Church of the Nazarene, when Charlotte Azalea Tanner became the bride of Calvin F. Bass. Rev. E. N. Gunter, pastor, officiated.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Virgie Goodwin, pianist, rendered several nuptial selections, and Miss Willie Beatrice Goodwin sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

The church was effectively decorated with floor baskets of Queen Anne's lace, white gladioli, and fern, against a background of palms, English ivy, caladiums, and white candles in seven-branched candelabra.

The ushers, Bobby Tanner, brother of the bride, and Luther Gunter, lighted the candles. The bridegroom had as his best man, his brother, Talmadge Bass.

The bride's maid of honor and only attendant, was Miss Anna Mercer. She wore pink linen with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride entered the church with her father by whom she was given in marriage. She was lovely in a white gabardine suit with white accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of purple gladioli showered with fever few.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Hassie Tanner, was attired in navy blue dress and wore a shoulder corsage of red carnations.

Mrs. Bass is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hassie J. Tanner of Winnsboro. She completed her high school course at Mt. Zion institute and is now an employee of Winnsboro Mills.

Mr. Bass is the son of Mr. Ivie Bass of Blythewood. He received his education at the Blythewood school.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Harmon of Cayce; Mr. and Mrs. Erlee Bass, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hood and daughter, Willie Mae, Mr. and Mrs. James Albert, Mrs. Maggie Albert, Mr. Ivie Bass and daughter, Lillie Mae, all of Blythewood.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in Winnsboro.

TAYLOR-BELL 1934

A marriage of interest to their friends in Fairfield county was that of Miss Ida Bell Taylor, of Lebanon, to Mr. Wayne F. Bell, of Winnsboro. They were married in Chester on Saturday, December 8th.

The young couple will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bell.

Taylor-Cunningham 1949

Miss Anne Florence Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Taylor of Ridgeway, and Mr. William Edgar Cunningham, Jr., were united in marriage at 7:30 P. M., June 30, at Aimwell Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Douglas McArn of Camden performed the ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. J. F. Dobson, soloist, and Mrs. J. L. Coleman, organist.

Mrs. J. C. Miller, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was dressed in orchid organdy. Miss Carolyn Crumpton, cousin of the bride, maid of honor, wore yellow organdy. Misses Ann Edmunds and Anne McMeekin, bridesmaids, were in dresses of pink and green organdy. Their bouquets were of shasta daisies tied with varicolored pastel ribbon.

Misses Mary and Anne Brown, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown, Winnsboro, were the flower girls. They were dressed in identical dresses of pink organdy.

The usher-groomsmen were Mack and Fred Cunningham, brothers of the groom, Samuel A. Taylor, Jr., brother of the bride, and J. C. Miller, brother-in-law of the bride. Mr. Buddy Rickey was best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Edward Tidwell, wore a gown of white slipper satin of princess design. Her full length veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Taylor, mother of the bride, wore an aqua crepe dress with a corsage of pink roses.

After the ceremony, guests were entertained at a reception in the Youth Fellowship building on the church grounds.

Mrs. Cunningham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Taylor of Ridgeway. She attended Winthrop College and at present is employed by the Citizens and Southern Bank in Columbia.

Mr. Cunningham, son of Mr. Edgar Cunningham of Liberty Hill, is attending the University of South Carolina.

For traveling the bride wore an egg-shell blue faille suit with black and white accessories, and the orchid from her Bible.

After their wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Columbia.

Taylor-Frick Engagement Told 1973

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Levi Taylor announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Dianne, to Glenn Rufus Frick. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hugh Frick. All are of Blythewood.

The bride-elect will graduate from Harbon Christian School in June.