

Porter-Timms

One of the loveliest weddings of the late summer was that of Miss Mary Louise Porter and Joseph Edmund Timms, which was solemnized Sunday morning, Aug. 29, in the presence of friends and relatives, at the home of the bride's parents. The house was artistically decorated in white and green. ¹⁹⁴³

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of white gladioli and ferns. Before the ceremony Mrs. J. C. Leavell played two piano selections: A Perfect Day and Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, Master Lanny Parker, young nephew of the bride, opened the French doors leading to the ceremony room. The bride and groom entered together, preceded by Dr. Oliver Johnson of Winnsboro, a cousin of the bride, who performed the ceremony while the vows were being spoken Mrs. Leavell played softly To a Wild Rose.

The bride who is a brunette was becomingly attired in a new Fall dress of dusty rose with navy accessories. Her corsage was of white asters and sweet peas.

Mrs. Timms is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Edwin Porter, Sr., of Winnsboro. She was educated in the schools of Union and Newberry and is an honor graduate of Mt. Zion Institute, class of 1942.

Mr. Timms is the son of Mrs. Susie Timms and the late David Y. Timms, Sr. He received his education in the schools of Winnsboro and is a graduate of Mt. Zion Institute, class of 1939. He is at present connected with the Phillips Granite Co., of Rion, S. C.

After an extended wedding trip through the mountains of N. C., the young couple are making their home with the groom's mother on Rt. 1, Winnsboro, S. C.

Timms-Simpson

Lovely in its simplicity was the wedding at 5 o'clock Saturday evening, December 21st, of Miss Sara Louise Timms and Arthur Thomas Simpson. The ceremony was performed in the First Baptist church of Winnsboro before an improvised altar beautiful in its decorations of white gladioli, candles, and ivy against a background of pines and ferns. The Rev. H. Floyd Surles officiated. Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. J. C. Leavell rendered several lovely musical selections which included, "In A Moonlit Garden" (John Thompson), "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" (Saint-Saens), Liebestraum (Liszt). As the candles were lighted, Schubert's Serenade was played, at the conclusion of which Miss Essie Mae Smith sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me."

The bride's sister and only attendant, Miss Christine Timms, preceded the bride as Mrs. Leavell played Lohengrin's "Wedding March." She wore a dress of light blue crepe and matching hat, with trimmings of gold. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, J. M. Timms, who gave her in marriage. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Paul Chastain of Blaney. The ring ceremony was used during which "To a Wild Rose" was softly played.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bride and groom left the church. Immediately following the ceremony they left for a short wedding trip to Florida.

Ushers for the occasion were J. T. Ross of Blaney, Ralph Drake of Blaney, Leslie Timms and Wilson Timms, both of Winnsboro, brother and cousin of the bride respectively.

The bride, a lovely brunet, was attired in a dress of rose wool trimmed in wine with wine accessories and a light beige coat. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a cameo necklace which had belonged to the groom's grandmother.

Mrs. Simpson, who received her education at Mt. Zion institute and Erskine college, is a young woman of beauty and charm, and has endeared herself to a host of friends who regret that her marriage will take her away from Winnsboro.

The groom, the son of Mrs. A. T. Simpson and the late Mr. Simpson of Blaney, is a graduate of Blaney high school and Clemson college. After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Simpson will make their home at Lydia where Mr. Simpson is agriculture teacher in the high school.

TIMMS-DICKSON

Amid a setting of beauty and simplicity, Miss Maude Timms became the bride of Fred Austin Dickson, Machinist Mate, second class, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening at the First Baptist Church of Winnsboro. The bride's pastor, Rev. H. Floyd Surles, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. ^{5/19/44}

Music was furnished by Mrs. J. C. Leavel who played Schubert's Serenade (Schubert), Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life (Herbert), and A Perfect Day (Bond). The traditional wedding marches (Lohengrin's and Mendelssohn's) were used. Miss Evelyn Sloan, vocalist, rendered D'Hardelot's "Because" and Nevin's "The Rosary." During the ceremony, To A Wild Rose was softly played.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, J. M. Timms. She wore a two-piece sheer navy

TIMMS-COOPER WEDDING SOLEMNIZED, MAY 28

Miss Dorothy Lee Timms became the bride of Herbert Boykin Cooper, Jr., on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sidney Joyner on Hudson Street in Winnsboro. The double ring ceremony was performed by her pastor, Dr. Ralph E. Lattimore, of First Baptist Church, in the presence of the immediate members of the two families and a few intimate friends.

Before an improvised altar of palms and candelabra, the vows were spoken. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Hugh Timms, and her only attendant was Miss Geraldine Walton of Winnsboro.

For her wedding dress the bride had chosen a beautiful white linen sheath with which she wore white and brown accessories and her corsage was a white orchid.

Miss Walton wore a dress of printed chiffon, white accessories and a corsage of tinted carnations.

The bridegroom had his father, H. B. Cooper, Sr., as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, the wedding guests were invited to the dining room where the tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom, and served by a group of the bride's classmates, with punch and mints.

During the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper left for their wedding trip, and upon their return, they will make their home in Charleston where he has a civil service connection at the Charleston Air Port.

Mrs. Cooper is the daughter of Mrs. Sidney Joyner and Hugh Timms of Winnsboro, and has just received her diploma from Mt. Zion Institute.

Mr. Cooper is the son of Mrs. Annie Wise and H. B. Cooper, both of Winnsboro.

TIMMS-YONCE

A wedding of charm and simplicity was that of Miss Margaret Eliza Timms, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Timms, of Winnsboro, and Frank David Yonce, of Johnston, which was solemnized August 27, at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of relatives and a few close friends. The Rev. H. Floyd Surles, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. The vows were taken before an improvised altar covered with ivy and banked with fern. Candles were lighted by a cousin of the bride, Miss Louise Boulware, before the ceremony was performed. The bride, lovely in a dress of peach mousseline de soir, carrying an arm bouquet of pink and white gladiolas, entered on the arm of her sister, Miss Louise Timms, her only attendant, who was dressed in a pink mousseline de soir with a corsage of rose-buds. The bridegroom was attended by A. T. Simpson, as best man.

Misses Christine Timms and Ger-tie Jones, sister and cousin of the bride, greeted the guests at the door.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Yonce left for Johnston after which they will leave for a short trip to the mountains of North Carolina. On their return they will make their home in Johnston.
