

Miss Linda Dianne Timms Becomes Bride of Mr. Thompson, May 11th

Miss Linda Dianne Timms and Lawrence Iverson Thompson, III, were married on Friday evening, May 11, at 6:30 o'clock in the First Baptist Church. The Reverend James P. Hawsey officiated at the double-ring ceremony, assisted by Dr. Olin J. Owens of Columbia. 1973

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lindsay Timms of Winnsboro and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Iverson Thompson, Jr. of Ridgeway.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ivy and lighted tapers in candelabra. Music was furnished by Mrs. G. M. Ketchin, organist, and Mrs. W. P. Bennett, pianist.

Serving his son as best man was Mr. Thompson. Usher-grooms were Lindsay Timms, brother of the bride and Dubose Rivers Martin, both of Winnsboro.

Miss Esther Marie Vaughn of Cayce was the maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of pink flowered sheer over taffeta. It was fashioned with puffed sleeves, square neck and was completed with a sash tied in the back. She carried a single long stemmed pink pom-pom mum tied with satin ribbon.

The bridesmaids were Misses Sarah Minton Patrick of Anderson and Miss Nancy Lorena Marthers of Winnsboro. Their dresses and flowers were identical to those of the honor attendant.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of candlelight chiffon, lace and net. Her fingertip veil was of pink lace and net. She carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds, baby's breath and carnations.

The bride's mother wore a pink lace dress & a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a dress of blue lace and her corsage was also of white carnations. The bride's grandmother wore a dress of pink and white knit and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's grandmother wore a blue knit dress and a corsage of white carnations. The bride's "Aunt Polly" (Mrs. M. W. Mackey) wore a pink dress and a white corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in the social hall.

HARRISON-TRAYLOR

Spartanburg — (Special) — Mrs. Lewis M. Harrison of Walnut Grove and Spartanburg, announces the engagement of her daughter, Martha Elizabeth, to David Gaillard Traylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Traylor of Ridgeway. The wedding will take place in September. 1947

The foregoing announcement will be of interest to the friends of David Gaillard Traylor, now working for the Southern Cotton Oil company of Spartanburg.

Mr. Traylor is the grandson of Mrs. W. Herbert Ruff.

MISS CHARLOTTE RENEE TIMMS

Timms-Cook Plans

1979

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Timms, Jr., announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte Renee, to William Pope Cook of Aiken. Mr. Cook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pope Cook.

The wedding is planned for Saturday, July 14, at six-thirty o'clock in the evening, in the First Church of the Nazarene in Winnsboro.

Miss Traylor, Mr. Gwin

Miss Cornelia Ann Traylor of Blackstock and Chester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Meador Traylor of Blackstock, and Claude Wallace Gwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harper Gwin, of Blackstock, were married at the Blackstock Baptist Church on Saturday, June 16, at 8:30 p.m. The Rev. A. L. Willis, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony. 1956

Mrs. J. Watt Weir of Blackstock, pianist, and Miss Faye Roddey of Chester, soloist, gave the musical program.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Thomas Maison Traylor, Blackstock, sister-in-law of the bride, matron of honor, Miss Dot Duncan of Chester, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Davis Morris of Pendleton, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaids. The flower girls were Diane Banks and Fran-nie Traylor, nieces of the bride and bridegroom.

The bridegroom's attendants were, best man, Wallace Boyd of Blackstock; ushers were Frank W. Traylor and Thomas M. Traylor, brothers of the bride, and Leonard Gwin and Charles F. Gwin, brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of bridal satin with inset yoke of lace, trimmed with rhinestones, long sleeves of lace and bouffant skirt of satin ending in a cathedral train. Her veil fell from an embroidered cap. She carried a bouquet of feathered carnations centered with a white orchid.

Following the ceremony the couple received in the vestibule of the church. During the evening they left for a wedding trip to Charleston and upon their return will make their home in Chester.

MRS. LAWRENCE IVERSON THOMPSON, III

Miss Moore, Mr. Timms Are Wed In August 18 Ceremony

1974

Eastside Baptist Church, Columbia, was the beautiful setting for the wedding of Miss Kathy Elaine Moore and George Glenn Timms, at two-thirty in the afternoon, Sunday, August 18. The officiating ministers were the Rev. R. James Watterson and the Rev. Elbert D. Hutto.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse T. Moore and is the niece of Miss Bernice Powell of Columbia.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Phillip Clويد Timms and of Mrs. Eunice Timms Maddox, and is the stepson of W. Bailey Maddox of Winnsboro.

The bride is a graduate of Columbia High School and the Baptist College at Charleston (with a BS degree). She is employed by Security Federal Savings and Loan of Columbia. The bridegroom, a graduate of Winnsboro High School and Wingate Junior College, with an associate degree in science, is also a graduate of the Baptist College, with a bachelor of science degree. He is employed at Craft-Farrow Hospital.

Given in marriage by Jolly K. Harrison, the bride wore a floor-length white gown of crepe with lace overlaying the top of the gown; the headpiece was a Juliet cap with net veil. She carried a white Bible topped with white orchids outlined with daisies.

Miss Fran Bagwell of Spartanburg was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Carol Parks of Columbia and Mrs. W. C. Adams of Greenville. Their dresses were blue, lavender and green pastels with matching hats and multi-colored necklaces. They carried old Testaments overlaid with white camellias.

Groomsmen were Henry M. Timms of Cayce, brother of the bridegroom, Archie Thompson of Charleston and Lawrence Yarborough of Jenkinsville.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

Following their wedding trip, the couple will reside at Woodmere Apartments in Columbia.

Mrs. George Glenn Timms

Newlin-Traylor

12/1942

A wedding of simple charm and dignity was solemnized on Saturday evening at seven-thirty o'clock when Josephine Dolores Newlin of Ridgeland became the bride of Cadet Horace C. Traylor, of Winnsboro, and Decatur, Ala.

The ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian church at Decatur, which for the occasion was decorated with palms, ferns and lighted candles. The Rev. Truxler, pastor of the church, performed the ring ceremony.

Cadet Henry Millar was the bridegroom's best man.

The bride entered with her father, Joseph Sidney Newlin, of Ridgeland, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore an attractive suit of Cadet blue wool with wine accessories, and a corsage of deep red roses.

Mrs. Traylor graduated from the Ridgeland High school and attended Carolina where she was a member of Beta Tau Sorority and belonged to the Junior Damas club. at Decatur, Ala.

Sindersine-Traylor

1945

On June 10th Miss Mary Alice Sindर्सine of Fairfax and Orangeburg and Marion Hartwell Traylor of Ridgeway were married. The Rev. Joseph Bynum, rector of St. Stephens Episcopal church officiated.

The bride had for her maid of honor, Miss Florence Scott. The groom's best man was his brother, William (Billy) R. Traylor.

The marriage took place at the home of Mrs. W. Herbert Ruff, grandmother of the groom. Only the families were present.

Mrs. Traylor, who is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Paul Sindर्सine of Fairfax, was graduated from the Fairfax school and from the Tri-County Hospital School of Nursing at Orangeburg. As Dr. Eargle's office assistant she has made a wide circle of friends who are glad that she will continue to make her home here.

Mr. Traylor, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hartwell Traylor, was educated at the University of South Carolina and at Clemson College. After three years in the service of his country he received an honorable discharge and is now representative of Dunn and Bradstreet. The young couple are making their home at 15 East Amelia stree.