Whaley-Ferguson

The marriage of Miss Margaret Cecile Whaley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Whaley, of Wadmalaw island, to Mr. Joseph Gantt Ferguson of Georgetown, took place at 8 o'clock October 23rd in Grace Protestant Episcopal chapel at Rockville. 1948

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward B. Guerry, rector, assisted by the Right Rev. Albert S. Thomas, retired bishop of the diocese of South Carolina.

The chapel was decorated with palms, smilax, gladioli and button chrysanthemums, magnolia leaves and candles. Mrs. Bonum S. Wilson, organist, played the wedding music and Mrs. E. Gailard Dotterer sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin with satin rose petals around the deep oval neckline. The full skirt fell into a train and she wore a veil of illusion falling from a coronet with rose petals attached to each side. She carried bride's roses and tuberose.

Miss Ann Simons Hasell of Charleston was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Jeanne Fowler, of Georgetown; Mrs. John H. Hydrick, Jr., of Orangeburg; Mrs. W. C. Sleeman, Jr., of Hampton, Va., and Mrs. John S. Whaley of Rockville. They wore satin gowns of antique blue, rose and fuchsia, fashioned with dropped-shoulders and berthas, basque bodices and full skirts and bustles. Their bouquets were of carnations.

Marianne Seabrook, of Rockville, was flower girl. She wore blue satin made like the bridesmaids'.

Mr. Thomas H. Wilcox, of Richmond, was best man. Groomsmen were Ensign Richard Ferguson, USN, and Ernest P. Ferguson of Winnsboro, Dr. Richard Sosnowski, of John's Island, and Mr. John S. Whaley, of Rockville.

The bride's mother wore mauve rose crepe trimmed with rhinestones and corsage of American beauty roses.

Mrs. Ernest Pendleton Ferguson, of Winnsboro, mother of the bridegroom, wore blue lace with yellow rose corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents after which the couple left for a wedding trip to the mountains of Virginia. Mrs. Ferguson wore for traveling a cocoa brown gabardine suit with beige blouse, hat and gloves and brown suede shoes and bag. She also wore the American Beauty corsage her mother had worn at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will reside in Georgetown. He is employed there with the Southern Kraft corporation.

Mrs. Ferguson is a graduate of Winthrop college where she majored in music. She has taught in the public schools of St. Andrew's parish and Georgetown.
