

Miss Peggy Lynn Ward Becomes Bride of Mr. Wilson on June 8th 1949

MRS. LEONARD DEWITT WILSON, III

WILLIAMS-HOUZE 2/1939

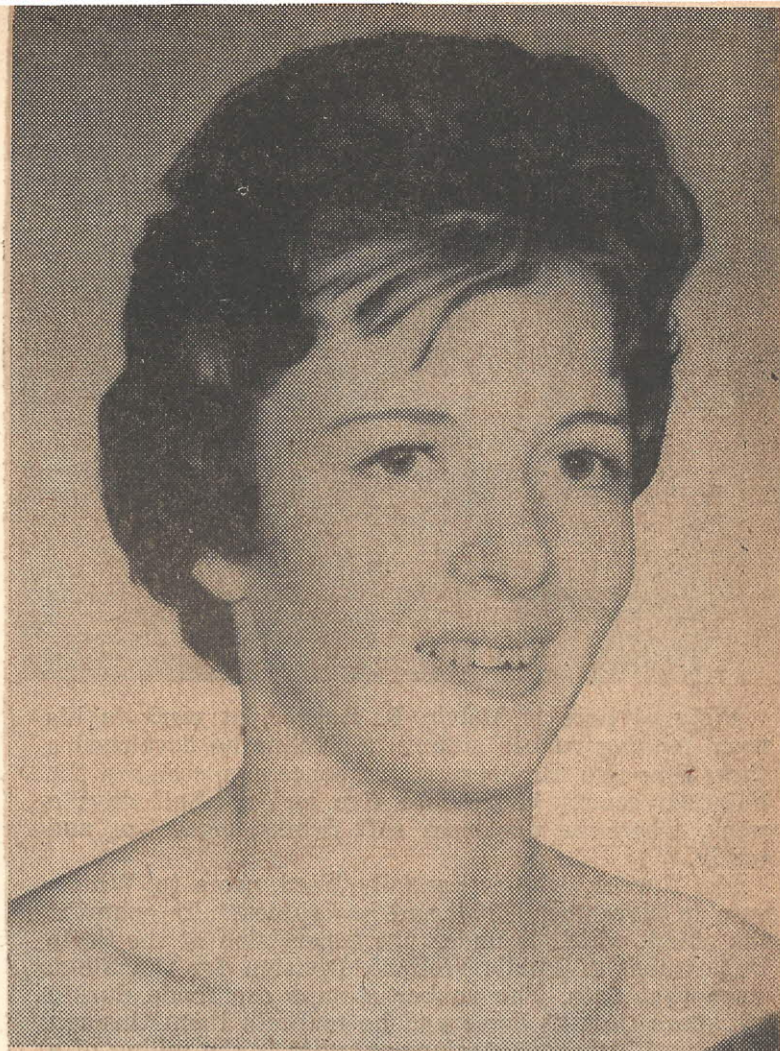

A marriage, characterized by charm and simplicity, was that of Miss Katie Williams and Clifford Smith Houze, Friday evening at eight o'clock at the Baptist parsonage. The vows were spoken before a group of friends with the bride's pastor, Rev. M. C. Padgett, officiating.

The bride, a semi-blonde, was beautiful in her costume dress of sheer wool in the new May wine shade, with coat and accessories to match, and a shoulder corsage of Killarney roses. Her only attendant was Miss Gussie Bazemore, who was attractively dressed in black with tan accessories, and a corsage of American Beauty roses. Miss Bazemore was escorted by Everett L. Williams, youngest brother of the bride.

Mrs. Houze is the daughter of H. L. Williams and the late Asher Knight Williams. Mr. Houze is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustus A. Houze, of LaGrange, Ga. After a short trip the couple will make their home in Winnsboro.

U. S. Royal Club No. 1.

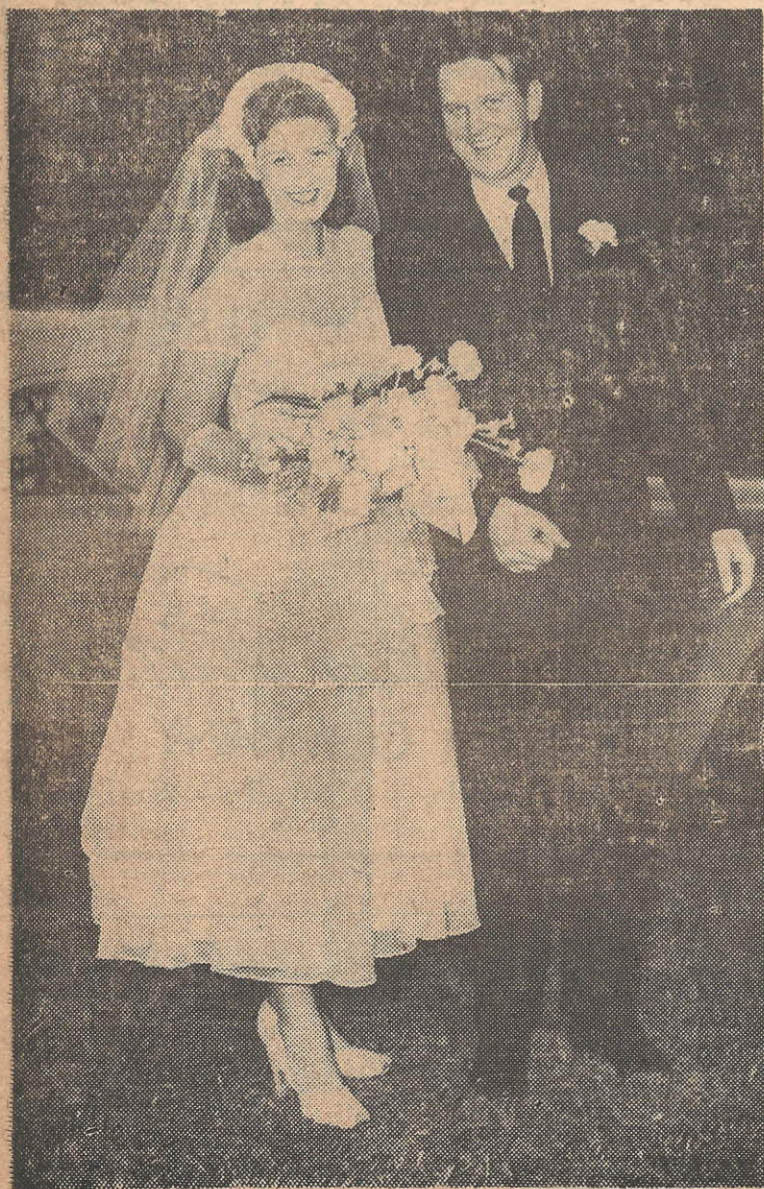

The U. S. Royal Mothers Club No. 1 had its regular meeting on Thursday night. Mrs. Harvey Pryor conducted the devotional, using the Third Commandment as her topic. Mrs. Dora Bass will talk on the Fourth Commandment next Thursday night. After the devotional, a Valentine Program was put on, which caused a bit of laughter and was enjoyed. A delightful pineapple salad was served, after which the meeting adjourned. All members please remember the time of next meeting. All visitors are welcome.

MISS SYLVIA ANN WILLIAMS

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Williams of Winnsboro announce the engagement of their daughter, Sylvia Ann, to Mr. Joel L. Warren of Wind Gap, Penn. Mr. Warren is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel E. Warren of Wind Gap, Penn. A June wedding is planned. 1961

Miss Williams Is Married In Beautiful Greenville Ceremony

WISE-CARROLL 1941

Of much interest to their many friends was the marriage of Miss Miriam Birge Wise, of Ridgeland, S. C., and William Donald Carroll, of Estill Springs, Tenn., Saturday afternoon, June 14th, at four o'clock. The marriage was quietly solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Lyles, Jr., in Winnsboro. Mrs. Lyles and Mrs. Carroll are sisters. The Rev. H. Lester Kingman performed the impressive ceremony with only members of the immediate family present.

The home was beautifully decorated with white gladioli, fern, and shasta daisies.

The bride wore a blue crepe ensemble with blue and white accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Carroll is the youngest daughter of Mrs. John Patrick Wise and the late John Patrick Wise, of Ridgeland, S. C. She was educated at Winthrop College and New York University, having received her M. S. Degree in Retailing in June 1940. Since that time she has been employed in Cincinnati and for the past several months has done distributing teaching in South Carolina.

Mr. Carroll is the son of Mrs. Annie Lucas Carroll of Estill Springs, Tenn., and the late Roscoe Thomas Carroll. He received his education in Tennessee, attending State Teachers College at Murfreesboro, Tenn. For the past several years he has studied and worked in the experimental and development departments of the U. S. Rubber Co., in three of their southern plants, and is at present Technical Supervisor of the Winnsboro Mills, a division of the U. S. Rubber Company.

Willis-Duke 1939

The marriage of Miss Nelle Willis, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Willis of Ridgeway, and Robert Hamer Duke of Columbia, son of the late O. C. Duke and Mrs. Duke of Columbia, which was solemnized November 23 at 5:30 o'clock in the Ridgeway Baptist church, was an outstanding event of the Thanksgiving season.

The Rev. J. L. Willis, assisted by the Rev. A. L. Willis, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with sprays of Southern smilax, white chrysanthemums and fern. Numerous white tapers in tall floor candelabra were used.

A program of nuptial music preceded the ceremony. With Miss Margaret McLeod of Columbia at the piano, Mrs. W. C. Edmunds sang several beautiful selections.

The ushers were Truett Willis, brother of the bride, and Dean Willis of Ridgecrest, N. C., cousin of the bride.

The groomsmen were Hugh Coleman, Luther Kelly, Lunsford Duke, Leroy Talbert, Ethain Ridgeway, all of Columbia; Roger Wilson, of Blythewood, Dr. Alexis Lubchenco of New York City, Charlton Duke of Darlington and Frank Elliott of Rock Hill and Leroy Easterling of Bennettsville. They formed a background for the lovely bridesmaids, Mrs. R. L. Hartman of Johnson City, Tenn., Mrs. Luther Kelly, Miss Van Hane, Miss Elizabeth Birt, Miss Carrie Thompson, Miss Jo Duke, Miss Margaret McLeod, all of Columbia; Mrs. Leslie Timms of Shelton, Miss Iris Willis of Ridgecrest, N. C., and Miss Juanita Elliott of Rock Hill. They wore Colonial type dresses of aqua and deep rose, with bustle back, sweetheart neckline and puffed sleeves, carrying arm bouquets of chrysanthemums. Mrs. A. L. Willis, mother of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress was of deep rose lace and her flowers chrysanthemums.

Miss Helena Willis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, her dress being similar to those of the brides-maids, in ashes of roses, and carrying an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums.

The flower girls, little Jane and Anne Edmunds, were adorable in blue satin dresses, carrying baskets of rose petals, which they scattered in the path of the bride. Little Lin Barnett, in a white satin suit, carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, was lovely in a wedding gown of white duchess satin with off-the-face cap effect veil, with seed pearls and orange blossoms, ending in a sweeping train.

She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The bride was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Gordon Duke of Olax.

Wilkes-Leonard

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Wilkes of Blair announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Ellen Lyles, of Blair and Spartanburg, an Oliver Wardlaw Leonard, Jr., of Spartanburg and Greenville. The wedding is to take place at Salem Presbyterian Church on Saturday, December 14, at five-thirty o'clock.

Miss Wilkes attended Winthrop College and for the past three years she has been employed in Spartanburg.

Mr. Leonard is the son of Mrs. O. W. Leonard and the late Dr. Leonard of Spartanburg. He is a graduate of Clemson College and served in the U. S. Army overseas for forty-two months, holding the rank of captain. He is connected with the Veterans Administration as Field Assistant with headquarters in Greenville, where the couple will live.

Richardson-White

Mrs. Bessie B. Richardson announces the marriage of her daughter, Mary Wesley, to Mr. Robert John White on Saturday, January 17, at the Methodist parsonage with Rev. H. L. Kingman performing the ceremony. 1942

The wedding of Miss Pauline Grace Williams of Greenville to Gerald Edwin Proctor, first lieutenant USAF, was held at 5:45 Tuesday afternoon, July 10th, at the Fourth Presbyterian Church in Greenville with Dr. John McSween officiating. 1951

The bridegroom is a graduate of Ohio University where he became a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He is now stationed at Donaldson Air Force Base. Upon return from a wedding trip, the couple will reside at 620 E. Washington St.
