

Miss Joyce Young Becomes Bride of Howard Allen Wright at Greenville

In a beautiful ceremony at South Main Street Baptist Church in Greenville, S. C., Saturday evening, October 27th, 1951, Miss Joyce Noreen Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Frank Young, became the bride of Howard Allen Wright of Greenville, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Grady Wright of Shelton and Winnsboro, S. C. Dr. G. H. Moore, pastor of the bride, officiated.

Mrs. Robert Winn sang "Through the Years," "Because," and as a benediction, "Seal Us O Holy Spirit." Jewel Spencer, organist, played "Ave Maria" and "O Promise Me." The traditional wedding marches were used. During the ceremony "Clair de Lune" was softly played.

H. Grady Wright of Shelton, father of the bridegroom, was best man. Usher-groomsman were Grady Wright, Jr., of Wintson-Salem, N. C., brother of the bridegroom; Bill McDowell of Shelton; Howard Allen of Shelton, cousin of the bridegroom; Rufus Edwards of Greenwood, uncle of the bride; R. M. Ballenger of Greer, cousin of the bridegroom; and Leslie Timms of Greenville. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Carson Rush, cousin of the bride; Miss Kathryn Coleman of Greenwood, Miss Idalyn Baldwin of Rock Hill; Miss Isabelle Wright of Winthrop College and Shelton, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Dorothy Wiggs of Greenville and Mrs. Sam King of Greenville.

Miss Vivian Lee Young, only sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The attendants all wore dresses of cinnamon taffeta and net with scalloped neckline and sleeves, fitted bodices, full skirts gathered in scallops at the waistline and self-covered buttons to the waist in the back. Each wore mits of taffeta and a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bride.

The maid of honor carried a cascade bouquet of talisman fujii chrysanthemums set in cinnamon net and showered with talisman roses and tied with gold ribbons. The bridesmaids' flowers were cascade bouquets of talisman fujii chrysanthemums set in cinnamon net and showered with bronze pompom chrysanthemums and tied with green satin ribbon. Barry Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Edwards and cousin

Wylie-Ward

Centering wide interest was the lovely wedding of Miss Mary Agnes Wylie and Malcolm Evans Ward which took place at eight o'clock Saturday night, May 7, at the Bethel Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, Winnsboro. The Rev. Russell M. Kerr, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Tall candelabra, entwined with smilax and graceful white satin ribbon bows, holding cathedral candles, and a floor basket of beautiful white gladioli, effectively decorated the church.

Mrs. G. M. Ketchin, pianist, and Otis Robbins, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music. Before the ceremony Boyd Hicks, baritone, accompanied on the organ by Mr. Robbins, sang "I Love Thee, Dear" (Grieg) and "Because" (d'Hardelot). The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and the recessional, and during the ceremony "Clair de Lune" was softly played.

The usher-groomsman were William T. Williams of Great Falls and Furman University, Morris Seigler of Walhalla, Robert R. Jay, Greenwood, and Robert E. Patrick, Jr., of White Oak and Erskine College.

Mrs. J. K. Puckett of Greenville, leda of the bridegroom, Miss Leta Amick of Darlington, Mrs. J. A. Lyon of Edgefield and Miss Louise Clements of Georgetown, served as bridesmaids. Their dresses were of green marquisette, having dropped shoulders with shirred berthas and shirred tunics over hoop skirts. They carried Colonial bouquets of mixed flowers tied with wide satin ribbons.

of the bride, was ring bearer. He wore a suit of white linen and carried the rings on a satin pillow.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory satin with imported lace yoke and sleeves, long fitted sleeves with points at the hands, self-covered buttons on the sleeves and down the back to the waist of the fitted bodice, the full skirt formed a long train. Her double tiered finger-tip veil of bridal illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. She wore a double strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom and carried a white orchid set on a prayer book and showered with streamers of white satin, tuberose and pompom chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Young, the bride's mother, wore a royal blue crepe dinner gown trimmed in sequins, white gloves and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Wright, the bridegroom's mother, was gowned in periwinkle blue chiffon with silver mits and an orchid corsage. Mrs. J. R. Shelton, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore rose imported Chantilly lace and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 245 Laurel Street in Greenville.

Later in the evening the couple left for their wedding trip to Washington and the Blue Ridge mountains. For traveling, the bride wore a smoke grey suit with black velvet collar and cuffs, white blouse, and black velvet accessories and an orchid corsage.

After Nov. 5th, they will be at home in the Courtland Apartments, East Faris Road, Greenville, S. C.

The bride is a graduate of Greenville High School and completed a nursing course at the Greenville General Hospital School of Nursing. She has been employed at Greenville General Hospital and more recently at the Greenwood Hospital.

The bridegroom graduated from Salem Cross Roads High School and attended Clemson College. He served in the U. S. Navy and is now in business in Greenville.

Among the guests from Winnsboro were Mr. and Mrs. James K. Wright and Miss Gay Wright.

MISS KITTY HUNTLEY of Mt. Croghan and Sumter was the maid of honor. Her dress was identically like those of the bridesmaids, and her nosegay was of all pink flowers.

J. K. Puckett, Jr., of Greenville, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was the best man.

The bride who was given in marriage by her brother, William Wylie, was lovely in her wedding dress of ivory slipper satin, designed with fitted basque and pointed waist-line, long sleeves ending in points over the hands, and a full circular skirt with a graceful lengthy train. Her full length veil of illusion and Chantilly lace fell from a coronet of satin bands and handmade rosebuds. She carried a cascade bouquet of calla lilies and white satin ribbons.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor.

Later in the evening the couple left for their wedding trip, and upon their return they will make their home in Spartanburg. For traveling the bride wore a stylish grey suit, grey hat and blouse, with matched green shoes and bag, and a white gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Ward is the only daughter of Mrs. William Hanahan Wylie and the late Mr. Wylie of Winnsboro. She was graduated from Mount Zion Institute and received her B.S. degree from Winthrop College in December, 1943. Since that time she has been with the South Carolina Extension service, and for the past four years has been home demonstration agent of Darlington county.

Mr. Ward is the son of Mrs. Malcolm E. Ward of Darlington and the late Mr. Ward. He grad-

WISHERT-DICKERSON 1936
On last Saturday night, November 21, Miss Frances Wishert and Mr. Marvin Dickerson were quietly married at the Parsonage in Chester by Rev. Long. Miss Wishert is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Wishert of this community. She is now making her home in Chester.

Mr. Dickerson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dickerson of this community but is now stationed at Huntsville, Ala. He returned to Alabama on Sunday. Mrs. Dickerson plans to join him there in the near future. We wish for them much joy and happiness along through life.

Foster-Wright 1948

Miss William (Billie) Zealah Foster and Henry Grady Wright, Jr., were married on Saturday evening, June 5, at seven o'clock at the Baptist parsonage in Chester, with the Rev. Broadus E. Wall officiating.

In the ceremony room, mixed flowers and greenery were effectively used. The bridal couple entered together, unattended, and the double ring ceremony was used.

The bride was attired in a pink suit, with which she wore white accessories, and her corsage was a white and purple-throated orchid.

Mr. Wright is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Foster of Winston-Salem, N. C. She is the telegraph operator, and will continue as the agent at Shelton.

Mr. Wright, whose studies were interrupted by his three years' service in the army, is continuing his work of electrical engineering at Clemson college.

Following the ceremony, there was a dinner party at the Hotel Chester for the bride and bridegroom and the following members of the family: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Allen, Mrs. V. H. Kittles, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Allen, Miss Isabel Wright, all of Shelton, Allen Wright of Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wright of Winnsboro.

GADDY-WRIGHT 2/3/1938

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noah Boaz, of Cameron, N. C., announce the marriage on January ninth of their sister, Miss Lula Belle Gaddy, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gaddy, of Cameron, to John Earl Wright, of Franklin, Va., son of Mrs. W. B. Wright, and the late Mr. Wright, of Shelton, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Wright will make their home in Franklin, Va.

uated from St. John's High school, and after one year at P.C. he entered the U. S. Navy where he served for three years. Upon his discharge from service he entered Furman University and completed his studies last January. He is now with General Motors Acceptance Corporation in Spartanburg.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. F. L.

Gandy, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Coker, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Huntley, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Huntley, Bill Huntley, Mrs. Pauline J. Sligh, Miss Dantine Sligh, Miss Myrtle White, R. M. Norment, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Cain, Miss Leda Amick, Miss Betty Anne Locke, Mrs. C. W. Thomas, Mrs. Ward and Miss Ward, all of Darlington; Mr. and Mrs. Verewee Allen, Miss Bobby Jean Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tyler of Florence, Mrs. E. L. Jager, Miss Margaret Jager and Mrs. Jeff Clark of Charleston; Miss Sally Pearce, Miss Gerry Devere of Rock Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Patrick and Bill Spike of Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Graham and Mrs. R. A. Patrick of Charlotte; Mrs. Charles Lawrence of York; Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Watson, Miss Mary Joyce Watson, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Smith of Spartanburg; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Patrick of Augusta; Mrs. E. L. Clements, Misses ers of Darlington.

Wood-White 1939
In the presence of a few intimate friends on December 24th., Miss Zeta Wood became the bride of James Louis White. They were married in Winnsboro by Judge of Probate, Horace Traylor. The couple will make their home here.

WILKES-LEWIS 1938

A marriage of much interest in the Douglas community was that of Miss Louise Roberta Wilkes to Mr. Ephriam Paul Lewis on Saturday, October twenty-ninth. The attractive young bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wilkes. She was a popular member of the 1938 graduating class at Monticello high school. Mr. Lewis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lewis. He is a successful young farmer formerly from the New Hope community.

Farmer-Williams

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farmer of Roanoke, Va., announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to 1st Sgt. Everett L. Williams on February 2nd. Sgt. Williams was formerly of Winnsboro, but is now stationed at Camp Forest, Tenn.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at Tullahoma, Tenn. 1944

Williams-Curlee

Mrs. Aubrey C. Williams, of Winnsboro, announces the engagement of her daughter, Anne Elizabeth, to Mr. Thomas Oscar Curlee, Jr., of Charlotte and Columbia.

The wedding will take place in the early fall. 1940

Edenfield-Wilson

Miss Nell Ruth Edenfield and Leonard Dewitt Wilson, Jr., were married Jan. 4 at the residence of the officiating minister, the Rev. H. Floyd Surles of the First Baptist church. 1942

Mrs. Wilson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Edenfield and Mr. Wilson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wilson.

Mr. Wilson is in the navy and is stationed at Norfolk, Va.

HENDERSON-WILSON

WEDDING TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Henderson of Chester announce the marriage of their daughter, Syble Elizabeth, to Carlos Dexter Wilson of Winnsboro.

Mr. Wilson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wilson of Winnsboro.

The ceremony was preformed on Sunday, July 26, at the home of the bride's parents. 1959

Mrs. Wilson is a former student of Chester High School. Mr. Wilson is a graduate of Monticello High School. At present the couple is making their home in Hackensack, N. J., where Mr. Wilson is employed with the New Jersey Petroleum Company.

WILSON-TAYLOR

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson of White Oak announce the marriage of their daughter, Sadie, to Ernest Maurice Taylor of Kershaw, Wednesday afternoon, April 27th. The ceremony was performed at the home of the officiating minister, The Rev. H. Floyd Surles, pastor of the First Baptist church of Winnsboro. Upon their return from a short wedding trip the young couple will make their home in Kershaw. 5/1938

WILSON-LAIL

RIDGEWAY — Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hyram Wilson of Ridgeway announce the engagement of their daughter, Eliza Rebecca, to Grady Eugene Lail, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Lail of Ridgeway.

The wedding will take place March 26 at the Ridgeway Ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. 1946

Stevenson-Wells

Mr. and Mrs. John Stevenson of Winnsboro announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois Irene, to Reuben Roderick Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Wells of Winnsboro.

The wedding will take place on August 13, 1949

PHILLIPS-WEIR

Rev. and Mrs. N. M. Phillips of Greer, S. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Emily Cherry, and Mr. James Watt Weir, Jr., of Blackstock, S. C. The wedding will take place in the early summer.

Brailsford-

Weir Engagement

Mrs. Henry Arthur Brailsford announces the engagement of her daughter, Miranda, of Pinewood and Columbia, and Arthur Trussell Weir of Blackstock. The wedding will take place in the near future. 1940

Wheless-Cowan

Mrs. Constance Haynes Wheless and Cecil Cowan, chief petty officer of the British Royal Navy, were married in March in Charleston.

Mrs. Cowan is the only daughter of Mrs. Joseph R. Haynes, and is employed with the Acne Finance company in Charleston.

Mr. Cowan, a native of Belfast, Ireland, is on the Captain's Staff, H. M. S., and has headquarters temporarily in Charleston, where the couple are now making their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowan spent the week end as guests of Mrs. Haynes.

SLOAN-WHITE

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. White of Winnsboro announce the marriage of their daughter, Hazel J. White to Joseph W. Sloan of Columbia, Sept. 22, 1936. Mrs. Sloan is a graduate of Mt. Zion Institute, and was a nurse at the Baptist Hospital. Mr. Sloan is now employed with Palmetto Printers of New Brookland, S. C. and the J. Drake Eden stores of Columbia. Mr. and Mrs. Sloan will make their home in Columbia.

Wicker-Scott

A wedding of much interest throughout the Carolinas was that of Miss Bettie Wicker and Mr. Cole N. Scott, both of Charlotte, N. C., which took place at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Julia S. Long on College st., in Winnsboro, Friday, May 10th, at high noon.

The double ring ceremony was used, performed by Dr. G. G. Mayes, former pastor of the Presbyterian church in Winnsboro. The wedding music was rendered by Miss Rae Morris, cousin of the bride.

The home was beautifully decorated throughout with an assortment of garden flowers and potted plants. The bride looked lovely in a going away ensemble of steel blue wool crepe with fur trim and navy accessories. There were no attendants and only the immediate relatives of the two families were present. A wedding breakfast was served, after which the young couple left for New York City and other northern points of interest.

Mrs. Scott is the daughter of Mrs. Albert Moorman Wicker, the former Miss Bessie Stevenson, of Winnsboro, and the late Mr. Wicker, originally of Newberry, but more recently of Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. Scott is the son of Mrs. Ross Nunnally Scott, and the late Mr. Scott of Charlotte.

Out-of-town relatives attending the wedding included Mrs. Scott, mother of the groom, Mrs. Wicker and Miss Alberta Wicker, mother and sister of the bride, all of Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wicker of Newberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott will make their home in Charlotte.