Dixon-Patrick.

Cards are out announcing the following happy event: 1909

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dixon request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Minnie Heath to Mr. Samuel Mason Patrick on Wednesday evening, April the fourteenth nineteen hundred and nine at seven o'clock at their home near Blackstock, South Carolina.

Moody--McDill.

The Presbyterian takes pleasure in making the following announcement and extends hearty congratulations in advance:

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Moody of Columbus, Miss., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Emmie Gardner, to Rev. Thomas Hemphill McDill, pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, Porterdale, Ga. The wedding will take place on the twenty-third of December. 1908

Patrick-Robinson.

The Presbyterian has received the following kind invitation. Miss Patrick was a former pupil of Erskine. Mr. Robinson is a brother of Rev. R. L. Robinson and Hon. W. P. Robinson of Lancaster. The Presbyterian extends to these young people in advance its cordial good wishes:—

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ross Patrick request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Janie Florence to Mr. Arthur Bruce Robinson Wednesday, December the nineteenth, nineteen hundred and six, at three-thirty o'clock p.m., at home, White Oak, South Carolina.

Robinson-Patrick.

As announced in The News of last week, Mr. Arthur Bruce Robinson was happily married to Miss Janie Florence Patrick, one of Fairfield's fairest daughters, last Wednesday afternoon, December 18th, 1906, at four o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Patrick, at White Oak, S. C.

Promptly at the hour appointed the bridal party entered the parlor. The wedding march played by Miss Florence Caldwell, of Chester, S. C. Two pretty girls, little Misses Agnes and Florence T. Patrick, cousins of the bride, unfolded the ribbon which outlined the pathway of the party. Messrs. K. H. Patrick and N. B. Cousar acted as ushers and were immediately followed by Revs. R. Lee Robinson and Jno. A. White. Then came Miss Ida Patrick, sister of the bride, maid of honor followed by the groom on the arm of his brother, Mr. W. P. Robinson. Then came the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Rev. R. L. Patrick, who gave her away.

The simple and beautiful ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Lee Robinson, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. Jno. A. White, the bride's pastor. Among those present from a distance were; Mrs. G. B. White of Chester, Mrs. Jno. A. White of Blackstocks, Mr. Frank Patrick of Union, Mr. J. Boyd Craig of Lancaster, and Mr. B. E. Wilson of Laurens.

Immediately after the nuptials were concluded the bride and groom, amid showers of rice, boarded the north-bound train for Lancaster, the home of the groom, where a reception was held the next day.—Lancaster News.
