Robinsons Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary

Beautiful in every detail was the fiftieth wedding anniversary celebration on Sunday evening, March 31, honoring Mr. and Mrs. James L. Roberson, held at the attractive modern home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Roberson. Co-hosts were Mr. and Mrs. James Roberson, Jr. of Jonesville. Irvin and James Roberson are sons of the honored couple.

Lovely arrangements of yellow and white flowers were placed throughout the home.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Ross Roberson and presented to the receiving line, composed of the honored guests, their sons and their wives.

In the dining room the refreshment table was overlaid with a lovely gold linen and lace cloth, and was centered with an arrangement of yellow and white mums and gleaming candles. Trays containing sandwiches, cheese wafers, nuts and mints were placed about the table where guests served themselves. Refreshing gold punch in a crystal bowl placed at one end of the table was poured by Mrs. Louise Turner of Columbia and Mrs. Alice Grey of Chester. Others assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Jessie R. Smith of Columbia and Mrs. Harold Cockrell of Greenwood.

The handsome three-tiered wedding cake was served by Miss Mary Sue Roberson of Columbia.

Miss Mattie Roberson was hostess in the gift room and Miss Leticia Roberson kept the guest register.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Roy McMeekin

Anniversary Upcoming

A reception was given on July 31 to honor Mr. and Mrs. William John Bennett on their 50th wedding anniversary. The reception was held at the Fellowship Hall of Stephen Greene Memorial Baptist Church in Winnsboro.

The hostesses were the couple's daughters, Mrs. M. P. (Ray) Mason of Greensboro, N.C. and Mrs. T. R. (Jewel) Young of Columbia.

A yellow color theme was used and carried out in the table decorations. Yellow netting covered lace tablecloths, and yellow tapers were used in silver candelabras with a yellow bow accent. One table held the silver punch bowl, which was encircled by Acuba leaves and yellow pompons. A second table was complemented by a lovely arrangement of mixed flowers, including chrysanthemums, stephanotis, and baby's breath in a silver vase. Punch, mints, cheese cookies, and nuts were served from silver trays on the tables.

A round table, covered by a cloth of yellow net over lace, held the beautiful, traditional tiered anniversary cake. Cascades of yellow roses and sugar bells decorated the cake. It was topped by a bride and groom standing in a setting of columns.

The guest register table was decorated with an arrangement of yellow roses and baby's breath in a crystal and silver vase. The gift table was filled with lovely golden wrapped gifts from the generous guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett's granddaughters assisted. Keeping the guest book was Mrs. Cynthia Petty of Columbia. The punch was served by Mrs. Kay Mason of Greensboro, NC. Mrs. Carol Mason of Greensboro, N.C. served refreshments and Mrs. Donna Hayes of Greensboro, N.C. prepared the gift list.

The cake was cut and served by a special friend of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Allie Mae Mims of Winnsboro. Helping with arrangements were Tom R. Young and M. Paul Mason, sons-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, and Russell D. Young, Gary W. Petty, Martin K. Mason, Morris S. Mason, and Edgar E. Hayes, grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, and Scott Mason, great-grandson of the couple.

Soft music for the happy occasion was taped and provided by Eddie Hayes. Mr. Hayes also took many photographs which will be enjoyed in the future by the Bennetts.

Mrs. Bennett greeted her guest in a formal gown of jersey knit styled with an Empire bodice, long sleeves, and a portrait neckline. Her gown was complimented by green crystal tear drop earrings, matching ring, golden slippers, and a yellow orchid corsage. Mr. Bennett wore a dark green suit with mint green shirt and accent tie with a yellow carnation boutonniere.

The hostesses welcomed the guests in their lovely formal length gowns. Mrs. Ray Mason's gown was of muted beige floral knit. Mrs. Jewel Young chose a gown of powder blue jersey knit. The hostesses and all the ladies assisting wore yellow carnation corsages.

A special "thank-you" is extended to Mrs. Carroll (Juanita) Turner, Mrs. Allie Mae Mims, and Charlie Marthers for their extra help.
