

Mr. and Mrs. Enloe 1977

Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Enloe

Fifty years ago, on September 5, 1927, Leila Mae Bland and John Edgar Enloe were united in marriage. This year, on September 4, a host of family and friends gathered at Stephen Greene Baptist Church social hall between the afternoon hours of three and four-thirty to congratulate the couple and help them celebrate their golden anniversary.

The couple's children, Betty Jean (Mrs. D. Brady McKay, Jr.) and Joan Margaret (Mrs. Robert L. Sims), as well as grandchildren, Jeanne, Beth, Danny and Libby McKay, Robbie Sims Peacock, Maty Sims Allen, Susie and "Scooter" (Robert L., Jr.) Sims, were on hand to greet, serve and entertain with music and songs during the festive afternoon.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Enloe in the receiving line were greeters Mr.

and Mrs. Coleman Dean; Mrs. Carrie Ligon, sister of Mrs. Enloe, and maid of honor at the original ceremony, also helped receive.

Mrs. Margaret C. McKay assisted with serving the traditional cake and Mr. and Mrs. Connie Mixon bid guests goodbye.

Mrs. J. Earle Stevenson made the lovely three-tiered wedding cake and other delicious refreshments served during the afternoon.
