

Methodist

An account of the Methodist church in Ireland is given in the introduction. Methodist churches existed in Belfast, Ballymena, Ballycastle, Lisburn, and Portaferry. For registers in the city of Belfast, see the appendix.

Parish: Downpatrick

Earliest Record: b/m/d 1827
Status: LC; NLI (mf); Indexed by UHF (to 1900)

Presbyterian

An account of Presbyterian records is given in the introduction. These registers rarely contain death records, and occasionally have only records of births. This is indicated where appropriate. All are held in the local parish unless otherwise indicated. The Presbyterian registers of Antrim are being indexed by the Ulster Historical Foundation (see Research Services at the end of the chapter). A search of the index will be conducted for a fee. Copies of many are also held at the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland (PRONI). For further registers in Belfast, see also the appendix.

Roman Catholic

Approximately ninety-five percent of the Catholic parish registers of this county have been indexed by the Ulster Historical Foundation (UHF; see Research Services at the end of the chapter). A search of the index will be conducted by the relevant center for a fee. These are noted below. Microfilm copies of all registers are also available in the National Library of Ireland (NLI), and through the LDS library system.
