

Simp Holley

DUBLIN, GA. - Simp Holley, 68, died Tues., Jan. 18.

Services conducted by the Rev.

James Knapper were held Tuesday, Jan. 25 at Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home Chapel in Winnsboro. Burial followed in the Weeping Mary Baptist Church cemetery.

Pallbearers were family and friends.

A native of Fairfield County, he was born Oct. 17, 1931, the son of the late Tom Holley and the late Sofa Brown Holley.

Mr. Holley was a retired painter and was a member of Weeping Mary Baptist Church.

Surviving are six daughters, Ms. Sylvia and Cynthia M. Holley, both of Dublin, GA, Patricia Shivers and Carol A. Pollard, both of Soperton, GA, Wilma Holley and Benita Lebby, both of New Britain, CT; two sons, James and Willie Holley, both of Soperton, GA; three sisters, Rose Holley of Winnsboro, Ms. Marie Black and Ms. Francis Jones, both of Baltimore, MD; and one brother, Bert Holley of Baltimore.

Russell-McCutchen Funeral Home of Winnsboro was in charge of the arrangements.

HERALD INFO. 02-03-2000